Café Bridge Drive

Sunday
May 23rd 2010
from 11.15am

Enjoy duplicate bridge in a new way as Café Bridge, popular in Holland, comes to London for the first time. Play takes place in a number of different cafés/bars/restaurants in the fascinating Canary Wharf district of London's Docklands. You play each round of the tournament in a different venue.

Register from 11.15-11.45am at Henry Addington's, 20-28 MacKenzie Walk, Canary Wharf, London, E14 4PH (close to Canary Wharf tube station) to be assigned your starting location. Play commences at each location at 12 noon.

Your entry fee of £18 per player includes lunch at whichever location you are in at lunchtime. Vegetarian options. Lunch break will be at 1.30pm. Drinks not included.

Numbers are strictly limited — pre-entry is essential

Entries close on Saturday May 15th or when the event is full if earlier. Enter on the form opposite.

Travel: The Canary Wharf area can be accessed by Jubilee Line tube, by Docklands Light Railway, or by river boat from Central London to Canary Wharf Pier. There will be some walking between venues. If you have mobility difficulties please contact us before entering.
